CHOOSE A COMMUNITY

When planning a relocation, one of the first things you'll need to decide is where you want to live. This could be as broad as an area of town, or you might narrow it down to a specific neighborhood.

You'll want to consider a variety of factors, such as:

- Proximity to Work – Map out the commute to your workplace and the availability of public transportation, if you plan to use it.
- Amenities – Make a list of essential amenities you'd like nearby such as grocery stores, gyms, restaurants, and parks.
- Neighborhood Vibe – Visit the area to gauge its atmosphere and characteristics, such as walkability, retail offerings, and population density.
- Cost of Living – Evaluate property prices, rent, utility costs, and overall affordability of different neighborhoods to match your financial situation and needs.
- Schools – If you have children or plan to in the future, consider the public schools they would be zoned to attend or the proximity to your preferred private schools.
- Safety – Look up local crime statistics and evaluate safety measures, like street lighting and speed bumps.

FIND YOUR NEW HOME

Once you've determined your ideal location, it's time to start thinking about your new home. For many of our clients, this is the most exhilarating part of their move! A new home signifies a fresh start and exciting possibilities.

The first decision you'll need to make is whether you want to rent or buy a home. Each option offers some distinct advantages.

REASONS TO RENT

Renting can be a good option when you're new to an area, especially if you're still saving up for a downpayment or you're not ready to commit to a permanent location. Benefits include:

-  Greater Flexibility
When you rent, it's easier to adapt to lifestyle changes or try out different locations.
-  Less Maintenance
Typically, renters are not responsible for repairs or home maintenance projects, which can cost time and money.
-  Lower Upfront Costs
The initial financial outlay for renting is usually lower than buying.

REASONS TO BUY

But, if you want to avoid multiple moves—and you're financially able—there's no reason to delay the benefits of homeownership, which include:

Quality of Life

Research by the National Association of REALTORS® suggests that homeownership correlates to increased health and happiness, greater educational achievement, and a higher degree of civil engagement.*

Financial Health

Buying a home is one of the best ways to protect and grow your wealth. Real estate will typically ride out a market's ups and downs and appreciate with time. You'll also build equity as you pay down your mortgage.

Stability

Rental prices over the last 10 years in the U.S. have increased by over 42%. In contrast, your fixed-rate mortgage payments on your home won't rise at all.

Tax Deductions

Homeowners receive tax deductions for mortgage interest and property taxes, which are both deductible on an individual's federal income tax return.

Independence

The freedom to do whatever they wish with their homes is a big incentive for many new homeowners, while others can't wait to get out from under the thumb of their landlord.

SELL YOUR CURRENT HOME

If you already own a home, you'll also need to start the process of either selling it or renting it out. But selling your home when you still need to shop for a new one can feel daunting to even the most seasoned homeowner.

Here are some of the most frequent concerns we hear from clients who are trying to buy and sell at the same time, plus some of our expert tips for handling them:

“WHAT WILL I DO IF I SELL MY HOUSE BEFORE I CAN BUY A NEW ONE?”

Open your mind to short-term housing options.

Check out furnished apartments, vacation rentals, and month-to-month leases. You may even find that a short-term rental arrangement can offer you an opportunity to get to know your new neighborhood better.

“WHAT IF I GET STUCK WITH TWO MORTGAGES AT THE SAME TIME?”

Ask us about contingencies that can be included in your contracts.

For example, it's possible to add a contingency to your purchase offer that lets you cancel the contract if you haven't sold your previous home. We can discuss the pros and cons of these types of tactics and what's realistic given the current market dynamics.

“WHAT IF I MESS UP MY TIMING OR BURN OUT FROM ALL THE STRESS?”

Enlist help early.

It's our job to guide you and advocate on your behalf. So don't be afraid to lean on us throughout the process. We're here to ease your burden and make your move as seamless and stress-free as possible.

We can help you evaluate your options based on current market conditions. We'll also give you an idea of how much equity you have in your current home so you know how much you can afford to spend on your new one.

THE HOME SELLING PROCESS

If you do decide to list your home, we can also help you successfully navigate the sales process. Or, if your property is outside of our service area, we can refer you to a trusted real estate professional in your current market for help.

While every real estate transaction is different, here are the basic steps you can expect to undertake when you sell a home:

STEP 1 – Hire a Real Estate Agent

Choose a pro who knows how to list, market, and sell your home.

STEP 3 – Preparation

Get the home ready for staging, photography, and showing.

STEP 5 – Showings

Buyers will tour the home, ask questions, and determine if your home is the right fit for them.

STEP 7 – Manage Closing

Work with the buyer's agent, lawyers, and title to finish the sale.

STEP 2 – Access Home Value

Use market knowledge and prices of competing homes to set the list price.

STEP 4 – Marketing

Start marketing the home using a thorough property marketing plan.

STEP 6 – Negotiate Offers

Evaluate offers on your home and negotiate to get the best one based on your criteria.

PLAN YOUR DEPARTURE

Preparing for a move can be both exhilarating and exhausting. Fortunately, you don't have to do everything in a day. You don't have to do it all alone, either. When you work with us, we'll be there every step of the way to help you navigate this process with ease.

To that end, here are some of our top tips to help you plan for your departure.

- Prepare Your Children

Moving can be especially difficult for our youngest family members. If you have children, communicate the move in an age-appropriate way. If possible, take them on a tour of your new home and neighborhood. This can alleviate some of the mystery and apprehension around the move.

- Decide What to Take

Use this opportunity to declutter your belongings by sorting items into categories: keep, donate, sell, or discard. This will not only streamline your packing process but also help you start fresh in your new home with only the items you truly need and love.

- Start Packing

To maintain order and make unpacking easier, pack one room at a time. Clearly label each box with its contents and the room it belongs to. This will save you time and effort when unpacking in your new home.

- Plan to Move Your Belongings

If you will be using a moving company, start researching and pricing your options. Make sure you're working with a reputable company, and try to avoid paying a large deposit before your belongings are delivered.

- Transfer Schools

Let your child's current school or daycare know you'll be moving and ask for any necessary forms. Arrange to have all records transferred to their new district.

sladja@invisionre.com

PLAN YOUR DEPARTURE

- Turn Off Utilities

Once you know your moving date, you can arrange to have your utilities turned off or, if possible, transferred into the new homeowner's name.

- Arrange for Transportation

If you plan to drive to your new home, map out the route, and, if necessary, make arrangements for overnight accommodations along the way. If driving is not a good option, you may need to have your vehicles transported and make travel arrangements for you, your family, and your pets.

- Schedule Final Get-Togethers

If you will be leaving friends or family behind, schedule final get-togethers before your departure. The last days before moving can be incredibly hectic, so make sure you block off some time in advance for proper goodbyes.

- Prep Your Home for New Owners

If you're selling your home, don't forget that you'll need to leave it clean and ready for the new owners. After your belongings have been removed, you'll need to set aside time to clean it yourself or have it professionally done. Also, be sure to leave behind any keys, garage door openers, warranty documents, etc. We can help you determine what should (and shouldn't) be left for the new owners.

PREPARE FOR YOUR ARRIVAL

While it's tempting to get wrapped up in the departure details, don't forget to plan ahead for your arrival at your new home. To make your transition go smoothly, you should start preparing well before moving day.

Here are a few pro tips to help you get started:

- Label Your Essentials

You'll need a few items (think toothbrush, towels, bedsheets) to make it through the first night in your new home. Designate some boxes with "Open Me First!" labels. (Pro tip: Keep a tool kit front and center for all that reassembling.)

- Turn On Utilities

Arrange in advance for your utilities to be turned on, especially essentials like water, electricity, and gas. You may also want to schedule Internet and cable service in advance.

- Update Your Address

Notify any relevant parties—banks, credit cards, subscriptions, etc.—about your change of address so you don't miss any important bills, notices, or deliveries. You'll also want to notify the post office and submit a mail forwarding request.

- Enroll in School

If you have children, ask about the process to register them for school. If possible, schedule a tour so they can see their campus and meet their new teachers in advance.

- Prep Your New Home

You may want to have the house professionally cleaned before moving in. And if you plan to remodel, paint, or install new flooring, it's easier to have it done before you bring in all of your belongings.

PREPARE FOR YOUR ARRIVAL

- Consider Transportation

If you own a car, check the requirements for a driver's license and vehicle registration in your new area and contact your insurance company to update your policy. If you will utilize public transportation, research options and schedules.

- Research Your New “Go To” Spots

Create a list of all the restaurants you want to try and places you want to visit around your newly purchased home. Having a to-explore list keeps everyone's spirits high and gives you starting points to settle into the neighborhood.

Use the worksheet below to start brainstorming:

GET SETTLED

Studies show that moving can lead to feelings of loneliness and depression.*
However, there are ways to combat these negative effects.

Here are a few strategies to help you and your family get settled in the new space:

- Prioritize Your Kids

If you have children, unpack their rooms first. Seeing familiar items will help ease their transition and establish a “safe zone” where they can hang out away from the chaos. If possible, let them have a say in how their room is set up.

- Make a Plan for Pets

Pets can also get overwhelmed by a new, unfamiliar space. Let them adjust to a single room first, which should include their favorite toys, treats, food and water bowl, and a litter box for cats. Once they seem comfortable, you can gradually introduce them to other rooms in the home.

- Get Organized

As you unpack, make a list of items that need to be purchased so you’re not making multiple trips to the store. Also, start a list of needed repairs and installations. If you have a home warranty, find out what’s covered and the process for filing a service order.

- Explore Your New Neighborhood

Try to schedule breaks to get out of your house and investigate your new area. And if you travel by foot or bicycle, you’ll gain the mood-boosting advantages of fresh air and exercise.

- Get Plugged In

Combat feelings of isolation by making an effort to meet people in your new community. Find a local interest group, take a class, join a place of worship, or volunteer for a cause. Don’t wait for friends to come knocking on your door. Instead, go out and find them.
